Committees

Administrative (Chairman Berger)

It was moved and seconded to have Aaron Feller complete the remaining term of Don Feller. The board accepted the resignations of Prakash Karamchandani and Michel McGrail. Jim thanked Tim Casey, Don Feller and Cathy Redford for their service.

Activities (Dunbar, Gibbons)

The meetings being proposed for 2017 under discussion are:

March: American Frame has asked to host an art viewing in its new gallery. Jim suggested wine and cheese at 5 p.m. instead of breakfast. Sue will make arrangements.

June 2017-Speaker

October 2017-Visit

December: Utterback suggested a chili cook-off in either late November or very early December to replace the holiday luncheon. She was asked to check with members to see if there would be adequate participation, which would include at least 5 booths, which each firm can decorate/name their chili.

Education (Niedzwiecki) The scholarship applications will be online in February.

Financial (Iott) No report

Membership (Berger, Iott, Utterback) No report

Old Business

Future of APA: Discussion concluded that the APA needs more social media contact. A motion was made and seconded to explore social median to promote the members. Motion carried. It was moved and seconded to pay $50 per month but not to exceed $575 to have someone post information about member firms on Facebook each month. Motion carried. Sue will contact someone who might be available to assist.

New Business

It was approved to let Chris Steiner set up a booth at an upcoming meeting.

Jim will check on the cost of Constant Contact.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned. Submitted by Susan Utterback, secretary
